PREFACE

The ability of the banking industry to achieve the socio-economic objectives and in the process bringing more and more customers into its fold will ultimately depend on the satisfaction of the customers. We have a strong belief that a satisfied customer is the foremost factor in developing our business.

We, at Citibank, felt that in order to become more customer friendly, the Bank should come out with a charter of its services for the customers. This document highlights Citibank's commitment towards customer satisfaction, thus ensuring accountability and responsibility amongst our officials and staff.

This charter for customers not only explains our commitment and responsibilities along with the redressal methods but also specifies the obligations on the part of customers for healthy practices in customer-banker relationships.

The charter has been prepared to promote fair banking practices and to give information in respect of various activities relating to customer service.

We maintain constant consultations with our customers and seek their feedback to evaluate, improve and widen the range of services provided by us. All our customers are requested to keep us informed of their experiences about the various services rendered by the Bank and feel free to send us your observations.

We look forward to sharing with you a mutually beneficial & long-term banking relationship.

CREDIT CARDS

Credit Card is a plastic currency bearing a distinctive identification number with a credit limit that can be used for purchasing goods and services and to obtain cash disbursements on credit (to the extent of cash limit). The card member is subsequently billed by the Bank for repayment of the credit extended either in full by the end of a specified period or can be settled in part, with the balance taken as extended credit as per the card member terms and conditions. Interest is charged based on the terms of the card member Terms and Conditions and the Card member may at times be required to pay an annual fee, which will clearly be communicated at the time of the card application.

Applicants can choose from a wide variety of Citibank Credit Cards, including but not limited to, Citi-branded cards and co-branded cards in segments like Fuel, Shopping etc. Each card comes along with its unique features and rewarding benefits, which are communicated at the time of application and also subsequently sent with the Card Plastic in the Welcome Kit. The latest updates are also available on the Bank's website. The Bank aims at enhancing the customer experience with best offers and discount deals from time to time.

When a customer applies for a Credit Card, the Bank will satisfy itself about the identity and verify address, in line with local regulatory requirements, as updated from time to time, of a person/s applying for the Credit Card, to assist in protecting the customer/s, members of the public and itself against fraud and other misuses of the banking system

The Bank is required to collect one recent passport size photograph and verify the Permanent Account Number (PAN). Alternatively, a declaration under Form No. 60 or 61 as per the Income-Tax Act, 1961 would be sought from the person/s applying for the Credit Card.

The Bank will provide to prospective customers details of the documents required for identification of the person/s applying for the Credit Card. The original of all documents will need to be sighted. Documents normally accepted (as per the current RBI Master Direction on KYC) are Valid passport, Driving license, Proof of possession of Aadhaar number, (purely voluntary) Voter's Identity Card issued by the Election Commission of India, job card issued by NREGA duly signed by an officer of the State Government and letter issued by the National Population Register containing details of name and address. Alternatively, the prospective customers can also complete the identity verification digitally, through Video based Customer Identification Process (V-CIP), using OTP based Aadhaar e-KYC authentication. However, submission of Aadhaar is purely voluntary by the customer.

The Bank shall provide the 'Most Important Terms and Conditions' (MITCs) to the prospective customer/customers at all the stages (i.e. during marketing, at the time of application, at the acceptance stage (welcome kit), along with the monthly statement and available on the Bank's website).

The Bank displays the Schedule of Charges on its website and shall also provide the same to prospective customer/customers along with the MITC. Method of calculation of annualized percentage rates (APR) and Late Fee on card are explained with examples for better comprehension.

The Bank will send the Card member a monthly statement, showing payments and transactions for the month, provided the Card has been active during the said period. The statements are not sent to customers if there are no transaction during the said period even though the card is active. Customers should ensure that at least the Minimum Amount Due is paid by the Payment Due Date to keep the card account current and to avoid levy of late charges. If a part payment is made, there would be no interest free period and interest charges would be applicable (including on fresh purchases, if any) via an average daily balance method.

Payments received against the Card outstanding will be adjusted against all taxes, fees and other charges, interest charges, cash advances and purchases in that order.

Customers should contact the Bank immediately at 24-Hour CitiPhone, if a Card is lost, stolen, misplaced, or if someone else knows the PIN or other security information. CitiPhone helpline at the numbers given below:

PERSONAL LOANS

Personal Loans is a single applicant product designed to help the salaried individuals to borrow at a competitive interest rate, without a collateral or guarantor. The loan can be availed depending on the requirement and repayment capacity, for personal use. While extending a loan, the Bank will satisfy itself about the identity, including verification of address, of an individual seeking to avail a personal loan, as required by law. This is to assist in protecting the prospective customer(s), members of the public and ourselves against fraud and other misuses of the banking system.

The Bank will provide to prospective customers details of the documents required for identification of the person applying for the Personal Loan. The originals of the documents will need to be sighted. Documents normally (RBI Master Direction on KYC) accepted are Valid passport, Driving license, Proof of possession of Aadhaar number(purely voluntary), Voter's Identity Card issued by the Election Commission of India, Job card issued by NREGA duly signed by an officer of the State Government and letter issued by the National Population Register containing details of name and address.

The Bank will also require one recent passport size photograph and the Permanent Account Number (PAN) or declaration in Form No. 60 or 61 as per the Income- Tax Act, 1961 from the individual applying for the loan. The customer is required to make Equated Monthly Installment (EMI) payments as agreed upon, at the time of applying for the loan. Any default on repayment would attract penal charges as specified in the product terms & conditions. Interest on these loan accounts is levied monthly at the rate stated in the product terms & conditions.

Customers must use these funds from this personal loan only for purpose as indicated by them in the end use section of the application form. These funds should not be used for any prohibited purposes as defined from time to time under the regulations.
