

Citi India consumer banking customers are now served by Axis Bank. Citi India has transferred ownership of its consumer banking business to Axis Bank (registration number L65110GJ1993PLC020769). Consumer banking customers can continue to use all existing Citi products and/or services, branches, ATMs, internet banking and Citi Mobile® App as usual. Axis Bank is the provider of Citi branded consumer banking products in India temporarily and Citi India is providing certain services in respect of those products. The trademarks “Citi”, “Citibank”, “Citigroup”, the Arc design and all similar trademarks and derivations thereof are used temporarily under license by Axis Bank from Citigroup Inc. and related group entities.

Grievance Handling Policy

A. Background and Objective

The timely and effective handling of consumer Complaints/Concerns is fundamental to Citi’s principles of Responsible Finance and its commitment to treat consumers fairly. Citibank NA, its subsidiaries, and affiliates are committed to promptly responding to and resolving consumers’ Complaints/Concerns and driving appropriate adjustments to business practices to improve customer service and enhance risk management

The objective of the policy is to ensure that:

- All customers are treated fairly and without bias at all times
- All issues raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and resolved on time
- Customers are made completely aware of their rights so that they can opt for alternative remedies if they are not fully satisfied with our response or resolution to their complaint.

B. Definition of a Complaint / Concern

Complaint/ Concern means an oral or written communication (including an electronic communication) that expresses dissatisfaction with a Citi product, service, policy, UEBT dispute, employee or a third party service provider acting on Citi’s behalf, or any combination of the foregoing Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:

- an allegation of unacceptable employee behavior.
- an alleged violation of law, regulation or policy;
- a product issue including product design or performance issues;
- a sales or service practice issue;
- problem handling and resolution (e.g., multiple hand-offs, excessive time lag); and
- An allegation that presents the potential for reputational risk.
- UEBT dispute for investigation
